Obituary

Carmen Mendoza Mouzon was born on February 15, 1926 to Walter Mouzon and Katherine (Kate) Warwick in Richmond, Virginia. Carmen was one of six children and raised by her grandparents Robert and Cornelia Warwick in Macon, North Carolina. Her grandparents not only stressed the importance of a well-rounded education, they instilled in her self-discipline and how to treat others. She exemplified these teachings as a student when she attended Livingstone College where she played basketball, was Treasurer of a campus group called the House Council, she pledged into the Alpha Kappa Alpha (AKA) Sorority and was an active member of Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church for over 50 years.

Later, Carmen moved to Washington, DC where she met Herman Wynn and on October 5, 1947 they were married at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church. Their union was blessed with three biological children, Arnold, Harry and Adrienne and one child they adopted and raised as their own from a few months old named Keith Wood. During the upbringing of her children, she used to babysit and watch other children after school. This earned her various Titles of Endearment such as "Mama Wynn", "Granny" and "Grandma Wynn". Herman and Carmen also raised two of their grandchildren Maria and Terence (TJ) from birth to adults. Throughout her entire life Carmen always gave of herself completely to God and did everything she could to help others. Even when the Lord saw fit to call from labor to reward her husband Herman, and her children, Arnold, Adrienne, Keith and Harry she still personified the Divine example of Christ in her daily living and numerous acts of charity. She instilled in her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and every child she took care of the importance of education and of having a relationship with God. She not only did this in words but in acts of kindness and deeds of goodness in her everyday life. This consistent discipline of selflessness was her "ordained vocation" and has inspired numerous individuals she encountered in life to become better people. She will always be remembered as a wife, mother, grandmother, mentor, counselor, aunt and cousin who gave guidance and direction from God and maintained honor as a true Matriarch to those who loved her.

On November 7, 2018, after a joyful and blessed life filled with service to God, her family and all whom she encountered, she was called from this terrestrial earth to the celestial heavens to take her place among the angels and saints for all eternity.

She leaves behind to labor in her place a sister Dorothea Creacy and a daughter-in-law Yvonne "Vickie" Wynn. Grandchildren Maria Wynn-Bundick (spouse Steven), Arnold "Pep" Wynn (spouse Brandy), Terence "TJ" Wynn (spouse Sonia), Lisa Wynn, Sirlena "Lena" Moore, Lil Reggie, Elizabeth Semper (spouse Jay), and Victoria Wynn. Great Grandchildren Arnold "Alex" Wynn, Isa Wynn, Amira Wynn, Antonio Bizzell, Terence Wynn, Jr., Michael Wynn, Nathanael Semper, Zachary Semper and Samuel Semper, along with a host of other relatives and friends.
